

Polo Season Opens With a Monster Crowd And a Clean Cut Victory For The Home Team

INDICATIONS ARE THAT OHIO IS ALL FOR TAFT

Heavy Vote Is Being Cast All Over Nation--Reports From Various States

[Associated Dailies Telegram] Columbus, O., Nov. 3. — In every state in the Union the ballots are named. According to reliable information falling today, and when the polls close this evening a successor to President Roosevelt will have been named. According to reliable information received here at the latest moment, the fight today between the two leading aspirants for the presidency is close. The result, even today is in doubt, despite the enthusiastic declarations of party managers that "it's all over but the shouting." Add to the electoral votes conceded to Mr. Bryan those of the doubtful states, and he will win. The states conceded to the Republican candidate, however, have a larger number of electoral votes than those admittedly Democratic. If Mr. Taft is victorious in the doubtful states his majority will be very great. The electoral vote in the last presidential election, in 1904, was as follows:

	Roosevelt.	Parker.
Alabama	11	5
Arkansas	11	5
California	10	5
Colorado	5	3
Connecticut	7	3
Delaware	3	3
Florida	11	5

While the fight for the presidency is attracting the greatest amount of attention here and elsewhere, it is by no means the only issue of importance today. A new house of representatives, the lower branch of the Sixty-first congress, is being elected. In twenty-eight states governors are being balloted for, and some of the states will choose legislatures which will elect United States senators. The terms of thirty-one senators—eighteen Republicans and thirteen Democrats—will expire on March 4. Among them are Platt of New York.

CHAIRMAN HITCHCOCK SAYS:
"We will carry New York, Ohio and Indiana. In fact, Mr. Taft will receive practically the same electoral vote as did President Roosevelt four years ago."

State of Missouri, Smoot of Utah, Stephenson of Wisconsin and Perkins of California. In twenty-three states a total of ninety proposed constitutional amendments, laws, questions or propositions are being voted upon. This does not include Michigan, where a revision of the present constitution has been submitted to the electors for adoption or rejection. Of general interest in this connection is the vote in South Dakota on the question of repealing the "one year residence" act passed by the last legislature in order to stop rapid divorce.

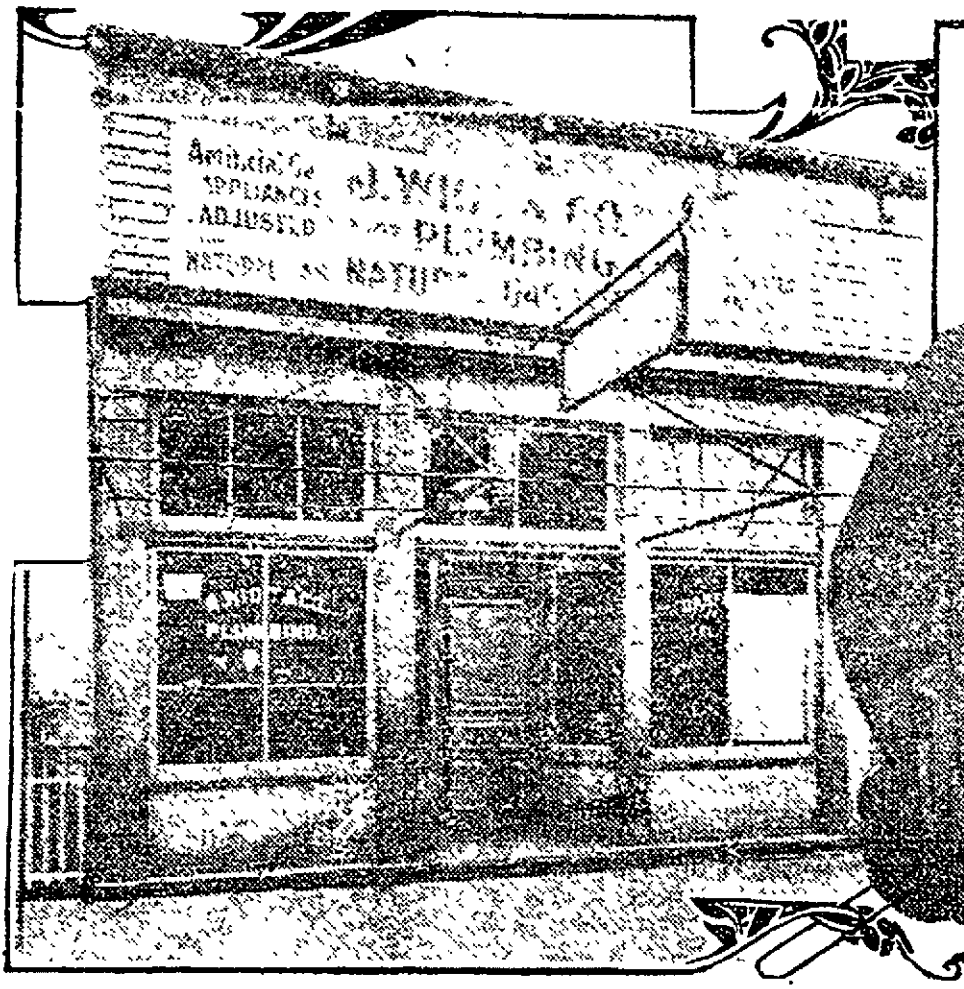

Ohio Has Seven Tickets.
The number of tickets in the states varies from one to six. Only the Democrats have tickets in the field in South Carolina and Louisiana, while in this state the voters have the privilege of choosing among seven sets of candidates for state offices. An interesting feature of the contest in Utah is the presence of the so-called "American party," opposed to the influence of the Mormon church in politics. The Prohibition party has tickets in twenty-one states, the Socialists in twenty-seven, the Independence party in twelve, the Socialist Labor in six and Peoples or Populist party in five, including Nebraska, where the Populists have fused with the Democrats. The Socialist Labor party has a "proxy" candidate for president, the real nominee being Martin R. Preston, who is confined in a Nevada jail on a charge of murder. The proxy is August Gilhaus of New York.
Here in Ohio, in addition to voting for or against one of the Buckeye state's native sons, electors are casting their ballots of the full state official family, members of both houses of the legislature, judicial and county officers, and also express their opinion on three constitutional amendments. The campaign, after a quiet opening, has been one of the hottest ever known, and leaders of the various parties in the nation have been drawn into the fight. Temperance legislation, present and prospective, has cut a large figure in the state offices contests, notably between the Republican and Democratic candidates for governor, and it is expected that the complication resulting from internal party differences on that issue will cause much delay in learning the result. The legislature to be elected will name a successor to Senator Foraker, for which place the present incumbent is a candidate. Three amendments to the constitution are to be voted on. One provides for changes in taxation methods, a second for earlier executive sessions, and the third provides for a two-thirds legislative vote to overcome a governor's veto.

Hughes' Fight Monopolizes Attention.
In New York state the fight for re-election made by Governor Hughes is almost overshadowing the national contest. Other states are also seeing today the finishes of bitter local contests. In Connecticut Congressman Lilley of submarine boat fame has as opponent Judge A. Heaton Robertson. New Jersey and Pennsylvania have been able to give their undivided attention to national and local issues, neither state electing a governor today. In Illinois Governor Deneen's claim to another term in office has been contested by former Vice President Adlai E. Stevenson. The congressional contest that has attracted most attention has been that between Speaker Cannon and Henry C. Bell, the Democrat who has his eyes on Uncle Joe's seat.

In Minnesota two descendants of Scandinavia are trying for election as governor. The Democrat is Governor John A. Johnson of national fame, and his Republican opponent is Jacob F. Jacobson. Missouri's leading candidates for the governorship are Congressman William S. Cowherd, Democrat, and Attorney General Herbert S. Hadley, Republican, who have had to yield a large share of the limelight in their state to the fight that is being made by Governor Joseph W. Folk for the senatorship. Senator Stone is seeking re-election, and the Republican aspirant for the place is Robert C. Kerens. In Mr. Bryan's state the candidates for governor are A. C. Shallenberger, Democrat, who beat Omaha's "cowboy mayor," Jim Dahman, in the primaries, and the incumbent of the office, George L. Sheldon.

Orrville Man Is Searching For Wife

She Has Been Missing For Four Days And Is Tracked To Coshocton With Another Man. Husband Claims

On the trail of an erring wife, who left her home to run away with a "handsome" man, L. H. Phillips, of Orrville, arrived in Coshocton Tuesday morning and left a photograph and description of his erring wife with the local police.

Phillips seemed greatly broken-up over the situation. His wife is a nice looking woman and they have gotten along fairly well together. He is at a loss to know what she means by her terrible actions. She left home three or four days ago and has sent no word back to her husband.

The deserted husband learned that Mrs. Phillips and her paramour had come to Coshocton and he was told that they spent the night on Sixth street not far from Main. When he went there the bird had flown.

When Phillips told his sad story in Coshocton, he was told that such a wife does not deserve to have a husband and home and that the best thing that he could do was to let her go.

ANOTHER ROORBACK SPIKED IN TIME

Another roorback was nailed at the eleventh hour, and over the city this morning, at every house, were handbills exposing the letter that Judge Donley had sent over the county trying to defeat W. J. Balmie and to elect L. D. Schott.

The Donley letter goes on to say that "it is the purpose of the liquor interests to defeat L. D. Schott for representative," and that "we should not permit those who are our friends to go down in defeat." The letter is signed by Donley, and written on a letter head of the local option committee.

The members of that committee declare they knew nothing of it and that it was not an official communication. The denial shows it is simply a campaign ploy to use his office as chairman of the recent local option campaign to further the chances of Democratic candidates. It is a political trick that cannot win, and is bringing strong denunciations of the Donley methods from some of the most ardent "dry" in the county, who although staunch in the "dry" convictions, dislike being made the tail to chase Democratic politics.

ELECTION RETURNS TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the rapid display of election returns tonight in front of The Age office tonight and the public is given cordial invitation to watch the big stereopticon. No "cold wave" nor "cold feet" will stop or mar the proceeding in the slightest degree.
Jud Wright tested out his big stereopticon last night and it is working like a charm. Fred Smythe and his busy assistants got the screen stretched today, the telephone companies are installing extra telephones, a special wire has been installed, and together with these and the special Western Union telegraph service, everything is in readiness to get the returns just as quickly as the newspapers of Chicago and New York will have them.

Expectations are that the returns from New York, state and New England will begin to come in about 7 o'clock, but there is fear that reports from Coshocton county may not begin to arrive till about 10 o'clock because of the vastness of the ballot and the probability of stretching. But The Age will give you the news if it takes till morning to do it.

BADLY BURNED BY EXPLOSION

John Hensley, who is employed at the H. D. Beach company, met with a very painful accident Monday afternoon while attending to his duties. He had been using turpentine for some purpose and the rags he had used were covered with the oil. Going to the engine room he opened the door of one of the furnaces and stuff them into it. The turpentine instantly caused an explosion and the fire blew back into the man's face, burning him severely. His arms were terribly seared to the bones, the right one being the worst being burned the deepest. The whole left side of his face and head were badly scorched. The force of the explosion knocked the unfortunate man backward, causing him to lose his hat and a piece of his coat. He fell on his back, and when he got up he found his right arm in a box that was split in two, tearing a bad gash in the arm. The man was the worst. He was hurried to Dr. Nelson's office in the Selby building where the burns were dressed and the man is resting very easily today.

Paid Bill And Adjourned.
The county commissioners, after paying the usual list of bills Monday, adjourned until Wednesday.

VOTE OVER COUNTY MUCH LIGHTER THAN ON OCT. 22

At 2:30 the total vote in the city and Tuscawawas township reaches 1825 out of 2855 polled at the local option election.

The indications are that in Coshocton City nearly as many votes will be cast as at the local option election and in Tuscawawas South the vote will probably be a little heavier this time, owing to the increase in the primary vote.

At 2:30 The Age visited the various voting places and found the following number of votes had been cast as compared with the local option election:
Ward 1 A 123 out of 213
Ward 1 B 206 out of 311
Ward 1 C 108 out of 146
Ward 2 A 154 out of 215
Ward 2 B 168 out of 227
Ward 3 A 231 out of 278
Ward 3 B 115 out of 157
Ward 4 A 217 out of 267
Ward 4 B 268 out of 382
Ward 4 C 122 out of 188

Tuscawawas North 98 out of 119
Tuscawawas South 111 out of 164
Reports from the other counties are to the effect that the vote is moderately heavy. The total vote is expected to be less than that polled at the local option election, but it is not yet decided.

Although the vote is not as heavy as at the local option election, it is expected to be a close race. Many counties that have not yet reported are expected to be very close. The results from the county primaries will probably not be in until much before 10 o'clock but it is probable that the results will come in from New York, and the other eastern states, before the 10 o'clock tallying of the national election can be completed. The Daily Age will give the returns as rapidly as possible and the crowd will not be disappointed. The result of the poll is expected to be a close race. BULL DOGS WIN BY HAIR OVER CHAMPIONS

Each Player Did Himself Proud--Score Coshocton 5, Ashland 4

Eight hundred cheering fans, a remodelled rink that fairly glistens with brilliancy, new seats, new cages, new skates and everything added to it all the soothing strains of Joe Johnston's Imperial Band.

This was the inspiring setting for the opening game of the Ohio State Polo League in Coshocton. This was the scene of a mighty conflict in which Ashland, the winner of last year's championship went down in defeat at the hands of Coshocton, the probable winner this season. The score was 5 to 4.

Battle of Giants
Two teams, which according to the dope handed out from all over the circuit, are the acknowledged favorites in this year's race, clashed on the Coshocton floor, both teams champing at the bit like two young colts hitched up for the first time after three or four months on pasture.

Ashland had a shade the best of it in the amount of practise they have received but the Bull Dogs have been improving their time in the last few days and the raggedness has been pretty well eliminated from their floor work. Ashland's team work was surprisingly good, considering the earliness of the season.

Team Played Hard
Red Williams, the auburn-haired first rush, stepped into the limelight right off the reel by caging all of Coshocton's five goals. Hicky was always right there and no sooner would his trusty stick send the ball spinning over to Red than, biff, it would land in the cage. Back of the two premier rushes of the league there was gifted support by Harold Boies and Graffam.

All "Went Some"
Harold who is noted for using his head as well as his club, did some clever work in the center of the floor and kept the ball jumping whenever he got near it.

"Doc" Boies demonstrated that he is ready to sten some this season and the backbacks will all have to get busy if they want to stay in his class. He is a blocker that the speediest drivers cannot get past and he kept the ball from getting near to the Coshocton cage.

Graffam, the old reliable, did not have as much work to do as his opponent, O'Meara. In fact Graff did not have as much exercise as his naturally active system demands. It is when the hard drives keep coming at him in rapid succession that he shows up to best advantage. Ashland did not hit the target often enough to suit him.

"Parson" Dewitt is not as quiet and demure as most ministers are. In fact he is a very speedy divine and he performs his work in the pulp it in hot races as well as he does his stunts on the polo floor he ought to be able to bring about the salvation of many souls.

Cures Eczema Quickly

New Drug, Poslam, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities

Since its discovery one year ago the new drug, poslam, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin afflictions. Heretofore poslam has been dispensed solely for the benefit of eczema patients in large jars sufficient for a month's treatment. This was found to be inconvenient to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., which requires but a small quantity to cure. To overcome this, and in response to urgent appeals, the dispensers of poslam have been obliged to adopt, in addition to the regular two dollar package, a special 50 cent size, which in the future may be found on sale at C. E. Anderson's and other leading druggists in Coshocton, or may be ordered direct from the Emergency Laboratory, No. 32 West 25th Street, New York City. In all eczema cases poslam stops itching with first application, and proceeds to heal immediately; chronic cases being cured in two weeks. In less serious skin troubles, results are seen after an overnight application. Samples for experimental purposes may still be had, free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.

Potters Leave Central Union

TIFFIN, O., Nov. 3.—The Potters' union of this city yesterday withdrew from the Central Labor union, an association made up of all the unions of the city, because of the political activity of the large body in supporting Bryan and because a invited Compo's speakers to this city.

The potters favors a tariff which will protect the products of their labor.

A HARD STRUGGLE

Many a Coshocton Citizen Finds the Struggle Hard.

With a back constantly aching, With distressing urinary disorders, Daily existence is but a struggle. No need to keep it up.

Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Coshocton people endorse this claim.

Mrs. Mary A. Deeds, of 318 North Fifth street, Coshocton, Ohio, says: "My health was very poor when I began to use Doan's Kidney Pills and kept getting worse. I had terrible pains in the back and hips, often so severe that I had to stop all work. The secretions from the kidneys acted much too frequent, were highly colored and caused me to arise several times during the night. I also had symptoms of dropsy and my feet and limbs would swell at times so that I was unable to put on my shoes. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills after I had given up all hopes of ever being cured and I began using them. I am now free from even the slightest symptoms of the trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and be no other.

No Need to Climb.

It was a very wet night, and the last omnibus was full inside when the conductor asked, "Will any gentleman ride upon the top to oblige a lady?" There was no response, so the inquiry was repeated. But again there was no reply.

At last one of the male passengers remarked, "Are you sure she is a lady and not a poor woman?"

"Oh, yes, she is a lady," said the conductor without hesitation.

"A well dressed lady?" again asked the passenger.

"Yes, a thorough, well dressed, fashionable lady," said the conductor.

"Then I should think she can afford to take a cab home," said the passenger.—London Mail.

Excessive Drinking

Excessive or continued use of alcoholic beverages always results in a diseased condition of the nervous system.

The drinking man is often heard to say, "I can stop of my own free will and when I wish," but the poor fellow is now devoid of the power to act at the proper time and in the right way—it's too late, the craving has secured a firm hold and because of the diseased nervous system he has not the ability for sustained effort. The result we all know.

Drunkness is no longer considered a crime; eminent scientists and physicians have agreed that it is a disease and must be treated as such.

The home treatment that has been used for a number of years, and is highly successful, is Orrine, it is sold under a positive guarantee, that if it does not effect a cure your money will be refunded.

Orrine is in two forms. When desiring to give secretly, purchase Orrine No. 1, and if the patient will voluntarily take the treatment, Orrine No. 2 should be given.

The guarantee is the same in either case. Orrine costs but $1.00 per box. Mailed in plain sealed wrapper on receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "Drunkness," mailed in sealed envelope by The Orrine Company, Washington, D. C. Sold in this city by C. E. Anderson, druggist.

A NATIONAL DANGER.

Dr. Darlington's Warning as to Cause of Heart Disease.

MENTAL AND BODILY UNREST.

Equanimity Need of the Times, Says Health Commissioner—Cardiac Disease Mortality Increases, While That From Other Maladies Declines

That the effect produced by high strung nervous tension induced by modern methods of social and business competition must be regarded as a causative factor in the production of functional and ultimately organic cardiac disease was the point made the other day by Dr. Thomas Darlington, commissioner of health of New York city, at the twenty-fifth annual meeting of the American Climatological association, which assembled at Boston under the presidency of Dr. Thomas D. Coleman of Augusta, Ga.

"During the early years of our national life," said Dr. Darlington, "physical labor was the rule and essential in the upbuilding of the country, but with it, hand in hand, went the normal and wholesome conditions of living imposed by the limitations of a young country and the virile qualifications inherent in the hardy settler.

"Then, with the advent of what we are pleased to call the concomitant attributes of civilization, came the age of social and mental unrest, vast commercial opportunities and competition. We are paying our prices for our social and material advancement.

"Out of 25,000 children examined in the public schools of New York city more than 70 per cent were found to be suffering from some physical abnormality—all handicapped at the very beginning of their life struggle—and of these children nearly 3,500 had heart disease in some form. There is a wide gulf between the three R's which were taught in the country school fifty years ago and the extensive and overburdening system of education now placed before the children. Economic conditions today are also bearing hard upon their physical well being.

"Children acquire by subtle inference the thought that the ultimate measure of gain is the acquisition of the 'mighty dollar.' With such a goal the race starts early in life and competition is the relentless pacemaker.

"In this connection we must take account of the modern tendency to over-indulgence in athletic sports. It is well known that overactivity in this direction, with the physical strain resulting from keenly contested games, leaves its imprint on the physical status of the immature or under developed youth. Insurance companies consider athletes 'poor risks,' and this attitude is well grounded. It would seem that the medical profession might well take cognizance of this matter to ascertain what bearing it has, if any, upon this question of the increase in the prevalence of and death rate from heart disease.

"Ossler, the master mind in medicine, has given to his profession its master word, and in it is held, if not entirely at least partially, the solution of our difficulties.

"Equanimity is the need of the times and the need of the people. Let us teach it; let us live according to its law. In calmness of mind and evenness of purpose we may find the panacea the world is seeking to combat, the ill arising from mental and physical unrest."

A Shining Mark.

A lady, grievously tormented with a corn on her toe, was advised by one of her friends to anoint it with phosphorus, which in a weak moment she did, but forgot to tell her husband before retiring at night. It had just turned 12 when the husband awoke and was startled to see something sparkling at the foot of the bed. He had never heard of a firefly in the locality, nor did he ever remember seeing such a terrible looking object as the toe presented. Reaching carefully out of bed till he found one of his slippers, he raised it high in the air and brought it down with great force upon the mysterious light.

A shriek and an avalanche of bed-clothes, and all was over. When at last he released himself from the bed-clothes he discovered his wife groaning in a corner of the bedroom, but she had got rid of that phosphoric corn.—London Graphic.

ELECTION

All Eyes on Empire State.

New York, Nov. 3.—Concerning the presidential situation, the prophecies made weeks ago are being fulfilled today. They repeated then the ancient axiom, "As goes New York so goes the Union." Time has confirmed their diagnosis of the situation. All eyes today are on the Empire state. The managers of both parties claim its 39 electoral votes, and all declare they see victory for their respective state candidates. The voting is being done rapidly up the state, some of the districts having already reported the polling of their full votes. The city moves in a more deliberate manner, however, and the streets are filled with animated, busy groups of party workers. In a great majority of the polling places the voting is slow, indicating, according to experienced politicians, much "scratching" or voting of split tickets.

The President Votes.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Nov. 3.—President Roosevelt's entry today into the village from his home at Sagamore Hill was made the occasion of a great popular demonstration. The president is personally popular with the residents of the village, and they made a place for him at the local polling place with great alacrity. He took only a few seconds to mark and deposit his ballot. When one of the bystanders ventured to shout "Three cheers for Taft!" the president turned on him one of his famous grins.

Crowd Cheers For Bryan.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—Long before the arrival of William Jennings Bryan at his polling place he was awaited by enthusiastic Democrats and spectators of all political faiths. When his familiar form was seen approaching a cheer broke forth that was smilingly acknowledged by Mr. Bryan. He was seemingly in good health and spirits, showing little sign of his strenuous campaign work. After bowing to the crowd and grasping the hands of those near him the Democratic candidate cast his vote.

Taft Votes In Home City.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—The strain of his speechmaking tours could be detected in Mr. Taft's voice when he responded to the greetings of those who turned out to see the Republican candidate for the presidency cast his ballot. Since his arrival in his home city after his nomination Cincinnati has not had much opportunity to pay attention to Mr. Taft, and today a crowd assembled at the voting place in Precinct H of the Second ward to greet him. To inquiries about his health Mr. Taft replied that he felt all right, and he answered questions about the outcome of the battle with the smiling assurance that he felt no fear. He was not kept waiting in order to cast his ballot, the crowd making way for him readily. As his portly form passed through the group of bystanders numerous hands were thrust out to him with good wishes. Before passing on Mr. Taft grasped as many as he could, thanking their owners for their greetings. The casting of his ballot required only a short time.

Harris Votes Early.

Eaton, O., Nov. 3.—When Governor Andrew L. Harris appeared at the polling place in the Fourth precinct early this morning there was little activity manifest, few voters being on hand at the time. The governor, after inquiring from one of the checkers how many votes had been cast, took the ballot handed him by one of the judges and entered the box. He evidently found the marking of the ballot an easy task, for he was absent only a minute or two, and after handing it back to the judges, walked out of the store room where the voting is conducted. He left the city in the afternoon for Columbus.

Harmon Casts His Ballot.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—The voting booth in Precinct A of the Third ward, at Gilbert avenue and McMillan street, was well filled with voters when Judson Harmon, Democratic candidate for governor, appeared to cast his ballot. After exchanging a few pleasantries with friends and neighbors he procured one of the blank ballots and entered a booth, from which he emerged in a few minutes and handed the bundle of paper to the judge whose duty it was to deposit it in the ballot box. Mr. Harmon then left the polling place after the exchange of a few remarks with the bystanders.

Election Day in the Capital.

Washington, Nov. 3.—With the greatest interest, personal, official and financial, in the result of the election, the national capital is debarrd from taking any active part in its determination. The city today is dead, absolutely and unqualifiedly dead. The great mass of officeholders have gone home to vote—that is, the male officeholders, who retain their

BEWARE OF THE BACKACHE

Simple Home Mixture Relieves Lame Back Urinary Troubles, Rheumatism

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good first class physician.

There are many of the esser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home it is stated by a well known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency, (especially at night,) painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no more effective remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism, because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the most suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

Unusual Interest at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 3.—This being Cleveland Taft's home city, it is not surprising that unusual activity should prevail on election day at all the precincts of the city. Voters have been flocking to the polls since the opened and a large vote is expected by leaders of both parties. An unusually large number of scratch ballots are being deposited in the ballot boxes.

Cleveland Wakes Up.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 3.—Election day in Cleveland is passing off quietly, a large vote having been cast during the hours when workmen were on their way to work. Judge Taft's presence in this city Monday served to inject new life into what had been a somewhat apathetic campaign, owing to the prominence assumed by the local streetcar war during the past few weeks.

Columbus Votes Fast.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Workers for both the old parties have been active ever since the polls opened this morning, with the result that the vote is coming out with unusual speed. The heavy registration—above the 44,000 mark—attests the unusual interest manifested in the national and state campaigns.

Naval Academy Class Rings.

A naval officer and a friend were strolling down Broadway one afternoon recently. The former glanced in at a pawnshop window and suddenly stopped. "Hello!" he exclaimed. "There is a Naval academy class ring." He went into the shop and asked to see the ring. There could be no doubt about it, it was a ring belonging to a member of a class which graduated some years ago. The officer bought the ring and put it in his pocket.

"Why, what can you want with that ring?" asked his friend. "Is the owner a particular friend of yours?"

The officer said he was not and then explained that it had always been a custom of the naval service for any naval officer to redeem a Naval academy class ring whenever he saw one and send it back to its owner, who, of course, makes good the loan at his earliest convenience.

"That is why," said the officer smilingly, "pawnshop keepers are always anxious to lend money on our class rings, and that is also one reason why a naval officer will never pawn his class ring until worse comes to the worst."—New York Tribune.

NOTED SOCIETY

LEADER WHO PASSED AWAY

Mrs. William Astor, who for many years the acknowledged leader of New York society, is dead of heart disease, a malady from which she has suffered for many years. Mrs. Astor was able to trace her ancestry as far back as 1638, when Jacob Janse Schermerhorn, founder of her father's family in this country, settled on Manhattan Island. Her father, William Schermerhorn, was one of New York's merchant princes at the beginning of the last century.

San Francisco, Nov. 3.—The British ship California, which arrived 199 days from Rotterdam, brought word of the loss of the British ship Palgrave, near Coquimbo, Chile. At the same port there was a rumor that the German ship Henrietta had been lost.

Keep Baby Healthy; Free

No child can be well and strong unless its bowels move regularly every day at the same hour. Such regularity promotes good health. One passage is absolutely necessary, while two are not too many.

There is one remedy that is especially adapted to the needs of children, and which thousands of American mothers are using today, and that is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound. Its gentle action, so free from griping, its tonic effects, and its perfect purity, vouches for the United States Government, makes it an ideal children's laxative tonic.

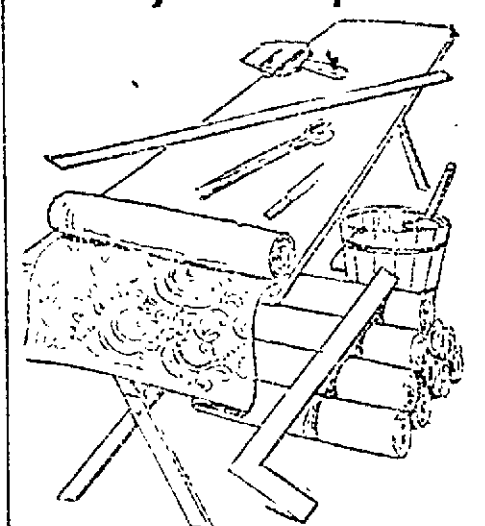

Mrs. M. J. Cash, of Webb, Okla., is an old-time friend of this wonderful child's remedy and she says she could scarcely keep house without it. She became acquainted with it through Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free trial bottle, which she found so effective on her baby that she now always keeps it in the house. Mrs. K. L. Stout, of Louisville, Ky., also first used it in a free sample, then bought it of her druggist at the regular price, which is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle. It gave her little girl a splendid appetite and a vigorous stomach. Where Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin once finds its way into the home it makes a life-long friend. They soon discard salts, pills and powders.

Those who have never yet used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should begin to do so, for they are getting a valuable household friend. In order to acquaint you with its merits at no expense to yourself the doctor will send you a free test bottle on receipt of name and address. It has been justly called the nation's safeguard to health in the cure of constipation, dyspepsia, heartburn, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and similar digestive ailments.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 510 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

W. J. BRYAN AND STORE NEAR FAIRVIEW WHERE HE VOTED ON ELECTION DAY

The polling place nearest Mr. Bryan's home, Fairview, just outside of Lincoln, is in a small general store at the roadside. It is an unpretentious structure, standing alone in a large lot, and in election times the scene of evening gatherings where subjects of great moment are fluently discussed by Mr. Bryan's neighbors. The democratic candidate reached Lincoln the night before election after the most amazingly strenuous campaign of his career, having traveled tens of thousands of miles and addressed millions of people speaking frequently as often as thirty times a day. Mr. Bryan ended the battle with little signs of fatigue.

TAFT BUSY UP TO THE LAST HOUR

Monster Parade Is Feature of Day's Proceedings — Candidate Again Pledges Loyalty to Laboring Men and Their Cause—Daniel Keefe Informs Representative Burton That Important Words Were Omitted From Mitchell's Telegram.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 3.—Judge William H. Taft closed his campaign in this city, delivering the following message to the American people:

"Vote the Republican ticket and preserve prosperity, protection to American industries, business integrity and the rights of labor."

Three speeches were required of the candidate—at the Park theatre, the Grand opera house and in the public square. Preceding these the candidate reviewed a parade which was miles in length and was composed of thousands of uniformed marchers.

The last day of the campaign for the candidate was remarkable in that there was an increase rather than a diminishing of the crowds and enthusiasm wherever he went. Beginning his work at Dunkirk, N. Y., he addressed big crowds at Westfield, N. Y., Erie, Pa., Ashtabula, Garrettsville, Cleveland and Youngstown. The Cleveland meeting was a monster affair and was preceded by a parade of many marching clubs, which was reviewed by the candidate by passing through the lines in an automobile with Mrs. Taft, who joined him at Buffalo.

Faulkner Presides.

The meeting in the Cleveland armory was presided over by A. I. Faulkner, president of the national order of windowglass workers. Judge Taft's speech here was a repetition of his arguments to show why there should be no change in the policies of government as applied by the present administration, in addition to which he took advantage of the opportunity to emphasize, as he had done throughout the day, that notwithstanding the opposition to him and the Republican party, Samuel Gompers, if elected, he will maintain his great sympathy for and interest in the welfare of organized and unorganized labor, which he maintains his previous record sustains.

In this connection it was made known that Representative Burton had information from Daniel Keefe, president of longshoremen's union, that the telegram published from John Mitchell to Samuel Gompers in which Mr. Mitchell declares himself in sympathy and accord with the policy of the American Federation of Labor, is garbled, inasmuch as it leaves out two important words, these words being "nonpartisan political." The text of the telegram as it should have been published was read, as follows:

"Telegram quoting what purports to be an extract from speech delivered by Mr. Taft at Buffalo last night received. His statement, so far as it relates to me, conveys a wrong impression. I am in full sympathy and accord with the nonpartisan political policy of the American Federation of Labor as it has been outlined and promulgated by the executive council."

Let Kodol Digest what you eat. Then you can Eat what you like.

You once could eat anything you wanted, and your stomach would digest it.

But now there's some things which your stomach won't digest. Your stomach absolutely refuses to accommodate you when you eat certain food—so you have been forced by your stomach to eat food which you detested, and pass up those delicacies that you would have really enjoyed.

There is a way now to eat any thing you like, if you will let Kodol digest it.

Kodol will do this, too. It won't talk back or command, but will go right ahead with its work and digest all the food you eat. Kodol will let you eat anything you like and all you want, and you won't suffer with that dull feeling, that fullness, and wish you hadn't eaten so much.

You will not have that heart-burn, which is so annoying at times, if you will let Kodol digest your food a while.

You don't have to use Kodol long—only for a little while—just long enough for your stomach to rest a little. It gets tired sometimes, too—just the same as anybody or part of your body that works.

Kodol will do exactly what your stomach does, when your stomach is well and strong, and more, when it is tired or out of order.

Kodol is composed of exactly the same juices as found in a healthy stomach, and therefore will do the same work as the stomach, when it is well and strong—the only difference is, Kodol never gets tired—and Kodol is the only digestant to-day, that will digest all food and do it as completely, as a strong, healthy stomach.

Get a bottle now and have it ready to help your stomach at times when you need an assistant. Kodol is at the nearest drug store.

Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. To Save Stirring.

Most people understand that the placing of a marble in a kettle prevents furring, but few seem to know that a large clean marble boiled in milk, porridge, custards, sauces or stews will automatically do the stirring as the liquid cooks. THE CAMPAIGN
Today settles it. The campaign which has been a short but swift one in this county, ends with today's balloting. Because of the widespread interest in the election held in this county under the Rose law, there was very little doing in local politics until after Oct. 22, except by the candidates themselves—and even they declared it was hard to hold a man long enough to pump orthodox into him. But in the last ten days the pace has been growing swifter and swifter till yesterday it ended in a whirlwind. The campaign has been generally clean cut and fair, the only thing marring the honest contests between candidates being the Democratic roboracks spiked and nailed by The Age yesterday.

We have faith in the judgment of the people that the men selected for the offices today will be men of stability and worth who, no matter who they are, will live up to the confidence the people will have reposed in them. Perhaps some of them will be men whom The Age has been honestly fought; but if they are elected, we are sincere in the trust that they will make good—for it is the community that suffers from an unworthy official, more than the party. We want men in charge of our public affairs who are men, honest and capable and fearless in the path of duty. We believe that the people of this community will see the merit in the candidates on the Republican ticket and elect them.

The "war clouds" of the future promise to be a flock of airships on the horizon.

The New York negro who fell seven stories and landed on his head had a narrow escape. He might have struck his shins.

The latest definition of pernicious inactivity is not having voted on election day.

Mrs. Howard Gould says her husband tried "to starve" her by cutting her allowance to "$60,000 a year." The brute.

An Atlanta girl says she wouldn't give a snap of her finger "for a kiss unseasoned by a mustache." That's a fair warning to the young men of that town. "If they ain't got no whiskers, they needn't come around."

A Wilkesbarre youth of twenty married a woman of forty-five while he was in an intoxicated condition. Intoxication, however, is no excuse in law.

The Iowa farmer who has just sold his corn crop for $12,300 might be a good man to head a national commission for the betterment of conditions among city folks.

In the list of contributors to the Bryan campaign fund we do not find Mr. Kerr's 200 Pennsylvanians who were going to put up $1,000 each, but perhaps they are too modest to have their names printed.

In Sumatra anybody may hunt as much as he pleases, the only condition being that a portion of the game must be given to the chief on whose territory it is killed. MAY BE INELIGIBLE Candidate Rockwell a Little Slow in Resigning Judgeship.

Columbus, O., Nov. 3.—Even if Judge David L. Rockwell, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, today receives a plurality vote, he may not be sure of that office until a court has passed on his right to be a candidate at today's election.

As Probate Judge of Portage county he did not tender his resignation to Governor Harris until yesterday, and then that important document was not placed in the hands of the governor. But left at his office by John P. Brennan, a member of the Democratic state committee, with no request to have it sent to the governor or inquiry as to when the governor would see it.

Inasmuch as one section of the election laws, 2978a of the revised statutes, says "all votes for any judge for any elective office except a judicial office under the authority of the state, given by the general assembly or the people, shall be void," Judge Rockwell may find it necessary to prove his right to be a candidate. Governor Harris is at his home in Eaton casting his ballot, and is not expected to return to the city until this evening.

The aeronauts, aviators and all those inventors interested in the navigation of the air are to have a field day at Morris park, near New York city, today. Among the odd contrivances that are to be tested are the glider invented by E. LeR. Jones and the bicyclic "wind wagon" built by Professor Pickering of Harvard. This last machine has been presented to the Aeronautic society of America. Pictures of both contrivances are shown herewith.

RIFLED OIL PIPE LINE

Device to Revolutionize Carriage of Heavy Crude Petroleum.

WATER USED AS A LUBRICANT

E. H. Harriman Spending Huge Sum to Benefit by the Novel Invention. Transportation Now Rendered Easy. Production of Oil Affected.

Without any "fuss or feathers" and without taking any public credit to himself J. D. Isaacs, consulting engineer for the Harriman railway lines, has perfected and put into operation an invention that will revolutionize the transportation of heavy crude oil. The demonstration which he has made of his new appliance, known as a "rifled pipe line," has convinced Edward H. Harriman that it is one of the most wonderful inventions of the age. Believing this, the "Napoleon" of the railway world is spending between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 in the construction of an entirely new and unique pipe line from Oil City, Cal., to Port Costa, a distance of 285 miles, says a San Francisco special dispatch to the Chicago Record-Herald. When the new line is completed Harriman will be able to supply his locomotives with oil at a transportation cost which will be almost infinitesimal when compared with the old way of carrying it in cars.

The proved fact that the heavier oils can now be transported through a pipe line successfully will also have an important bearing upon the production and transportation of crude oils and upon the products which are manufactured therefrom. Up to the time that Mr. Isaacs made his new discovery the oilfields west of the Rocky mountains were facing a threatened oil famine. In fact, many of the engines which had been converted into oil burners had been reconverted, owing to the cost of transporting the oil to the points where it would be available.

The oil which is being transported by means of the new device comes from the Kern oil fields, near Bakersfield, Cal., and has a density of 11 degrees Baume. Owing to the cost of freighting, various attempts were made to send it through pipe lines. It was found that the pumping pressure demanded was too great.

Then the company tried various experiments to get the oil to the points of consumption. The first expedient was heating the oils, which facilitated its conveyance for short distances. It was found, however, that the degree of heat necessary for the transportation of the oil for a long distance was so great as to cause disintegration of the oil, which resulted in a deposit of asphaltine, clogging the pipe line. The Harriman engineers then tried the injection of water into the pipe lines, but it was found that the quantity of water necessary was so great that the expense of ultimately separating the oil and the water was prohibitive. Leath to abandon the use of the Bakersfield product, the company then tried the mixing of lighter oils with the heavier oil. This was found to make its transportation through pipe lines feasible, but the expense of transporting the lighter oils to the Bakersfield district and the expense of mixing it again brought the cost up to a prohibitive point.

Mr. Harriman was about to order the abandonment of the project when Engineer Isaacs asked him to wait for a time and give him an opportunity to study the matter carefully with a view to seeing if he could not find some way out of the difficulty. Mr. Isaacs is something of a hunter, and while enjoying this sport he chanced to look through the barrel of his gun. He noted the rifled bore, and the reason for its being rifled flashed through his mind. Why not make the rifle bore do for the pipe line what it does for the gun?

The next step was easy. He knew intuitively that when they water was pumped into such a bore it would produce a whirling motion which would cause the water to be thrown against the outside of the pipe line and would keep it there. This accomplished, the effect would be constantly to maintain a thin film of water between the pipe and the oil, enveloping the latter. This use of water as a lubricant would make it impossible for the crude oil to stick to the pipe and impede its progress.

When the plant was shown to Mr. Harriman its simplicity appealed to him, and he ordered an appropriation sufficient to carry on a series of experiments. A lead pipe was used to determine the amount of friction caused by the passage of the oil. Then the same pipe was twisted by hand, and it was found that the water had a whirling motion when forced into it. This proved the soundness of the principle and led to larger experiments. A standard pipe line one and one-half miles long was then built at Oakland, and the bore was rifled by the insertion of helical wires. The first experiments through this pipe showed that it was possible to transport many times the amount that could be sent through the plain tube. Other experiments showed that the best results were obtained when 10 per cent of water was injected.

Finally a rifled pipe line was constructed between Delano and Volcano, a distance of thirty-one miles. The pipe is eight inches in diameter, weighs 22.8 pounds to the foot and is tested for a pressure of 1,200 pounds to the square inch. With an initial pressure of 800 pounds to the square inch the line is capable of transporting 14,000 barrels of oil net every twenty-four hours.

ROCK-FELL ON HIM BUT NO INJURY

Lee Jewell, a resident of Blue Row, who is employed at the Hudson coal mines near Coshocton was the victim of what might have been a serious accident while at work Monday night. He was preparing a blast and was nearly ready to shoot it when part of the false roofing which had been loosened by the drilling fell, striking him on the back. Fortunately the fall was not much of the rock and the injuries were slight. The man was removed from the bank by some neighbor miners there he was examined and a small flesh wound was found on his back and his neck was slightly bruised. No doctor was called and the man is up and around today.

GREAT RESULTS AND GOOD WORK CONTINUES

Root Juice has Proved its Great Merits to Many.

Many people here, as elsewhere are no longer incredulous, they are simply amazed at the results obtained from Root Juice. When the remedy was first introduced to this community and so many were being benefited by a few doses, was generally thought that the medicine would only give temporary relief, but as the time passes and many that were at first no longer complaining, but are advising their sick friends to try Root Juice, confidence in the great medicine is becoming positive. Root Juice makes so many remarkable cures by removing a few causes and giving nature a chance. It tones and heals the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys; it creates a healthy appetite and by its toning action on the blood—making the blood filtering organs, good rich blood is made to nourish every weak part of the body. If your stomach, bowels, liver or kidneys are out of order, they will be pleased to tell you about it at C. E. Anderson's drug store, Root Juice, $1 a bottle. It has proved all that is claimed for it.

Fire Delays Traffic.
Philadelphia, Nov. 3.—A spectacular fire that was marked by many thrilling incidents destroyed the lumber yards of R. A. & J. A. Williams, in the northwest section of the city, entailing a loss estimated at $50,000. The yard is on a rectangular piece of ground, and close beside the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad. As a result of the fierce blaze southern and western trains were held up several hours. A line of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company crosses Glenwood avenue, also at the scene of the blaze. This bridge caught fire and the heat warped the rails so that traffic was tied up.

LINCOLN OPENS ARMS TO BRYAN

His Neighbors Turn Out and Make Homecoming a Gladsome Affair. Candidate Sheds Tears When Referring to Helpmate and Predicts His Election by Overwhelming Odds—Says He Believes Conscience of American People is Awakened.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 3.—On his return to his home city at the close of his campaign William J. Bryan was given the greatest demonstration in the history of Lincoln.

Being nonpartisan in character, it was participated in by Democrats and Republicans alike and the Democratic candidate was driven through the streets and cheered by almost the entire population of the city. The reception was tendered him as a citizen of Lincoln rather than as a candidate, and in the speech he avoided all reference to partisan issues. In the parade which followed his automobile from the Union station, however, many political transparencies were carried.

Mr. Bryan's speech was greeted with vociferous cheers. The candidate was moved to tears as he made an affectionate reference to his wife, and when he closed the demonstration recorded him was such as he rarely experienced in this three campaigns. "I believe I am going to be elected," he said. "More than that, I believe it is going to be more than a bare victory. I believe that there is a stirring of the conscience of the American people, a moral awakening, an uprising that means a sweeping victory, and I will swear in your presence that no one who votes for me will ever have occasion to be ashamed of the vote he casts."

CLOSES HIS CAMPAIGN

Bryan Delivers Marysville Speech With Extraordinary Earnestness.

Marysville, Kan., Nov. 3.—Before a large and enthusiastic audience William J. Bryan concluded his campaign for the presidency at this place. It was the last political speech his address at Lincoln being nonpartisan and simply a talk from a neighbor to his neighbor. Mr. Bryan realized it was the concluding political speech of the campaign, and his last words were given with more than ordinary feeling. His peroration was delivered with all the earnestness at his command, and as he declared that he had given an impulse to honest politics and helped to create a sentiment in favor of reform, he was wildly applauded by the large audience. In concluding he spoke in part as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen—I am now 48 years old. It is 18 years since I began my political career as a candidate for congress. I told the people of my district that, if elected, I would not try to get their hands into other people's pockets; that I would simply try to keep other people's hands out of their pockets. For 18 years this thought has run through every speech and act. I have tried to apply to government the Jeffersonian maxim of 'equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' I have tried to help make this government a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

"What a spectacle the Republican campaign presents at its close, the Republican candidate trying to repudiate the support of the trust magnates, who are coming out from under cover and announcing their loyalty to him, and at the same time trying to claim the support of labor leaders like Mitchell and Duncan and Morris, who are openly repudiating them. Surely the hour has come for a return of the government to the hands of the people. Let the people rule."

It was a notable day for Mr. Bryan in Kansas. Commencing at Kansas City, Kan., he talked in towns and cities not unfamiliar to him, for he has campaigned in this section many times before; but his audiences were greater than ever before during his campaigns, not excepting 1896, when he carried the state by a large plurality. In every speech he delivered he referred to the effort of the president and of Mr. Taft to deny the support of Mr. Rockefeller and the trust magnates, and quoted from a fac simile confidential letter issued by the Standard Oil company and ordering the employees of its New York office to march in the parade held in that city last Saturday night, and published in a New York paper.

Two men met in the street, and one said to the other, "Why are you not working, Jones?"

"Well, do you see," said Jones, "I work at a place putting spots on dominoes, and I am playing today because they are making nothing but double blanks."

Fels-Naptha is that friend.

Bring it into your laundry and kitchen, give it a chance to do the work you've been pounding out by main strength, and Fels-Naptha will be your close friend—not for a month or a year, but for life.

Fels-Naptha saves you not only work and time, both summer and winter, but makes your clothes sweeter and cleaner, preserves them, makes them wear longer.

It saves you the coal or gas necessary to heat water and boil the clothes, as Fels-Naptha does its cleansing in cool or lukewarm water.

All that's necessary on your part is to follow the easy directions printed on the red and green wrapper.

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong! Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak and ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling or "inside nerve". When these nerves fail then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. A few days test will surely tell! Sold by C. E. Anderson, Coshocton, and C. M. Ferguson, Roscoe.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR

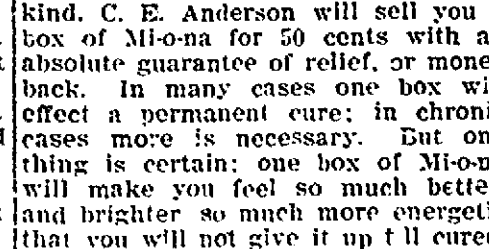

Doctor Said Mrs. Lucier's Stomach Was Worn Out, But Mi-o-na Cured Her.

Why, oh why, will people of intelligence continue to suffer with dyspepsia or distressing stomach troubles, when Mi-o-na, the only scientific remedy, has a record of thousands of just such cures as the following:

"I was near to death's door. The doctor said he had done all he could; that my stomach was old and worn out. I was so weak I could not walk. I took Mi-o-na tablets, and have been eating hearty ever since, and I am able to work like a tiger. I wish I could go and thank you myself. I send you my picture, and you can use my word and my picture, and I thank you again.—Mrs. Nelson Lucier, 112 Fisk street, Athol, Mass.

Mi-o-na cures dyspepsia. There isn't a particle of doubt about it; and if any of the readers of The Age are suffering from stomach trouble of any kind, C. E. Anderson will sell you a box of Mi-o-na for 50 cents with an absolute guarantee of relief, or money back. In many cases one box will effect a permanent cure; in chronic cases more is necessary. But one thing is certain: one box of Mi-o-na will make you feel so much better, and brighter so much more energetic that you will not give it up till cured.

Mi-o-na is not a digester. Digesters never cure dyspepsia, and never will Mi-o-na is a stomach strengthener that builds up the worn out, flabby inside of the stomach, and makes the stomach strong enough to perfectly digest what you eat.

CANDIDATE GOT TANGLED IN PLATFORMS

L. E. Pratt, who has been the busy boy in the campaign just ending, on the Democratic side, has a new appellation. They call him "Hon." The boys inveigling him into going up to Washington Saturday night and making a Bryan speech, and in the hand bills they heralded him as "The Hon." L. E. Pratt. Of course Pratt, who is of a natural retiring disposition, has been much fussed; but they do say that he made a rattling speech at that. He was assisted by the Hon. Bob McDermott.

There is a funny story in connection with that Washington meeting. After the two Coshocton "Hons" had concluded, there was a call for a speech from Mr. Stillinger, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, whose home is in Tiverton township. They had been talking about the Democratic platform and asked Mr. Stillinger to say something along that line. He took the platform and then surprised them all by declaring "that he had never told anybody how he stood on that question and didn't intend to take any sides."

Then explanations were in order and he admitted that he forgot and thought they were talking local option, which he had become so accustomed to dodging that it had become a fixed habit with him.

A MARRIED MAN'S TROUBLES.

When a man says he will, and a woman says she won't, the man should give in. He's a fool if he don't for his life will be full of sorrow and strife, as long as he combats the will of his wife. Now the wisest way is always the best, you must construe this advice as a jest, if your wife won't please and gain your own way, just buy her some Smartan Stain some day. Every housewife is beginning to know that there is nothing so good for refinishing the furniture and woodwork as Smartan Stain. Made by The Mafetta Paint and Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by C. L. Sore Throat Not a Trifling Ailment

Almost every one has had sore throat—will have it again. It is one of our most common ailments and, because it, in itself, is not fatal, is too often looked upon as a small matter, requiring little or no attention.

On the contrary it is a very serious affection because every person with Sore Throat is in danger of tonsillitis, Quinsy, or Diphtheria and other serious maladies. In fact these diseases are almost invariably preceded by Sore Throat. The air we breathe, the food we eat, the liquids we drink, all pass through the throat, and if that is diseased infection may be carried to every part of the system. To cure a Sore Throat often means to prevent Diphtheria or one of the other more serious throat diseases. Curing Sore Throat is TONSILINE'S special mission. It is made for that—advised for that—sold for that one purpose. TONSILINE is the one and only Sore Throat cure which is sold over a large part of the United States. TONSILINE is so well and so skillfully prepared as a Sore Throat cure that the first dose gives decided relief, and a very few doses cure. Remember—Sore throat is Nature's danger signal. Keep TONSILINE in the house and be on the safe side of Sore Throat. All druggists, 25c. and 50c. The Tonsiline Co., Canton, Ohio.
